

WORTH NOTING

Event, Song Mark Int'l CU Day

MADISON, Wis.—To mark International Credit Union Day, the World Council of CUs will host a webcast on Oct. 21 from Credit Union House in Washington. It will feature WOCCU CEO Pete Crear, CUNA CEO Bill Cheney,

Filene's Mark Meyer from Filene and the National Cooperative Business Association's Paul Hazen. To register: www.wescorp.org/webcast/webcastICU.asp?id=751

In addition, "The Ballad of Friedrich Raiffeisen" has been released by The Disclosures, a duo featuring Chad Helminak of the Wisconsin league and Christopher Morris of the National CU Foundation. For info: <http://thedisclosuresmusic.com/2010/10/09/check-out-our-first-single-the-ballad-of-friedrich-raiffeisen/>

2004. During the CU growth, the Arnold Air Force Base in Tennessee,

Ohio CU's
COLUMBUS (OCUL) and Simion, CE Credit Union help stimu mion also Healthca nati Cent unions r

NACUS
ONTAR Direct here t The S will b p.m me is m